

Missy Miller

Western Sales Associate

Missy began her career with Riverfront in 2021 as the Western Sales Associate. Missy is a native Oregonian who loves the beauty of the Northwest. She brings with her 20+ years of experience in financial services.

Before joining Riverfront, Missy worked at Morgan Stanley as a Senior Client Service Associate. Prior to that she worked as an Executive Assistant at a small boutique financial firm located in downtown Portland, Oregon. She enjoys finding new and creative ways to offer top notch customer service to clients, associates, and prospects.

Missy has a passion to mentor teenagers and runs an after-school program at her local church where she and her team feed, offer homework support, and encouragement to today's youth. When not volunteering at her church or running her family's catering business, Missy loves spending time with her husband Drew and their beautiful daughter, Grace.

“My community passion is anything that focuses on today's youth. I work with local charities to make sure food, school clothes, and supplies are available for those in need.”
